

A new domestic entity is one that has not been previously established in Illinois and upon formation will be located and doing business within the state of Illinois.